

Second announcement

12th Japanese-Hungarian Symposium on Discrete Mathematics and Its Applications

March 21-24, 2023

Budapest, Hungary

As a part of the long history of cooperation between Japanese and Hungarian scientists in the field of discrete mathematics, the 1st Japanese-Hungarian Symposium on Discrete Mathematics and Its Applications took place in Kyoto in 1999. The participants decided to continue their existing cooperation on a more regular basis and established a biennial series of conferences. The 2nd, 4th, 6th, 8th, and 10th Symposia took place in Budapest (2001, 2005, 2009, and 2017) and in Veszprém (2013) respectively, while the 3rd, 5th, 7th, 9th, and 11th in Tokyo (2003, 2019), Sendai (2007), Kyoto (2011), and Fukuoka (2015), respectively. The 12th Symposium will jointly be organized by the Department of Operations Research, ELTE Eötvös Loránd University, and by the Department of Computer Science and Information Theory, Budapest University of Technology and Economics.

We are glad to invite you to the 12th Japanese-Hungarian Symposium on Discrete Mathematics and Its Applications, which will take place in Budapest, between March 21 and 24 in 2023.

Invited speakers:

Hiroshi Hirai, The University of Tokyo
Naonori Kakimura, Keio University
Kazuhisa Makino, Kyoto University
Shin-ichi Tanigawa, The University of Tokyo
Takeshi Tokuyama, Kwansai Gakuin University
Yutaro Yamaguchi, Osaka University

Kristóf Bérczi, ELTE Eötvös University, Budapest
Tamás Fleiner, Budapest University of Technology and Economics

Submission of papers:

If you plan to give a contributed talk, please submit a PDF version of your paper (length: 6-10 pages) or at least a sufficiently detailed extended abstract (2-4 pages) until the extended deadline

January 15, 2023.

Contributions in LaTeX format are requested, using the `jh2023.tex` template file (see the homepage of the symposium). All submissions should be sent by e-mail to the address jh2023@cs.bme.hu. The authors will be notified about the acceptance of their paper before January 29, 2023.

The final version of the papers in LaTeX for the Proceedings (both for invited and contributed talks are due before February 21, 2023).

Proceedings:

The Proceedings of the Symposium will contain all the invited and contributed talks and will be distributed upon registration. The authors may publish their contributions later in appropriate research journals.
